

Nancy Chorpenning Named to NAWBO® Board of Directors for 2013-2014

Local Business Leader Elected to NAWBO National Position

(Washington, D.C., August 26, 2013)—The National Association of Women Business Owners® (NAWBO) is proud to announce Ms. Nancy Chorpenning of C-Suite Advisors in Atlanta, Georgia will serve on the 2013-2014 Board of Directors.

“I am honored to have been chosen to serve as a member of the Board of Directors along-side this prestigious and dynamic group of women,” stated Ms. Chorpenning. “Given the important role women business owners are playing to revive our economy, it is critical that our organization and our members continue their efforts to move our economy forward. I look forward to contributing to the mission of NAWBO in this new role.”

Chorpenning brings 30 years of senior management experience with Fortune 50 corporations as well as with start-ups and non-profit organizations to C-Suite Advisors. She provides strategic, operational and marketing advice and support to organization leaders and key player teams. Her top leadership roles with media giants Time Warner, Times Mirror and WebMD combine with a superb marketing education from Northwestern’s Kellogg Graduate School of Management to inform her perspective.

“The Board we have assembled is comprised of an incredibly talented group of women and Nancy is indicative of that,” said Ms. Billie Dragoo, NAWBO National Board Chair. “We plan to build on NAWBO’s longstanding history of advocating on behalf of women entrepreneurs in the public policy arenas at the state and federal levels of government. I look forward to working with Nancy and all of the board members to ensure that we can deepen the power and influence of NAWBO for the benefit of all of our members and the nation’s more than 10 million women business owners.”

A recently returned Peace Corps Volunteer, Chorpenning remains active in community and business organizations, facilitating CEO Roundtables and serving on the Board of Directors and as President of NAWBO’s Atlanta Chapter, on the Small Business Council of the Metro Atlanta Chamber of Commerce and as Chair of Stewardship and Finance for the Southeast Conference of the United Church of Christ.
